Crazy Daze

The Freshman class surprised everyone with their outstanding hallway and their exceptional school spirit at the pep rally.

The Sophomores put up a fight throughout the week and their spirit was outstanding when it came to black and gold day.

The Junior hallway (a.k.a the 'Nauset Lounge') was quite a comfortable setting with it's couches and vibrant decorations.

It was a stormy week at Nauset when the Seniors reigned over all with their royal hallway.

"Shiver Me Timbers Matey!" Pirates equipped with hooks and patches ruled the school Tuesday.

On Clash Day matching was not an option. Patterns ranged from horizontal stripes to vibrant polk-a-dots.

Was Wednesday 2005 or 1985?! Students flashed back to their favorite eras, leaving Nauset in a real time warp!

Nauseteers showed their school spirit on Black and Gold Day by dressing up in their school colors and team uniforms.

(Above): Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy paid a visit to Nauset on Superhero day putting a smile on everyone's face on Superhero Day.

(Right): Tanya Feehan, playing tough defense, maneuvers the ball past a DY player and sends it up the field.

The faithful fans at the game cuddled up to keep warm while supporting the Nauset teams.

Marcus DelNegro quickly boots the ball to protect the goal. Nice save Marcus!

Homecoming Games of 2005

Freshmen class showed their Nauset Spirit by warming the crowd with their smiles and hot chocolate.

Sophomores spiced it up with hot Italian sausages and saucy meatball subs.

Juniors sweetened up the night by selling a variety of candy and sodas to support their class.

Senior class really rolled in the dough by selling donated pizzas from a number of local pizza parlors.

Once Upon A Golden Night

When the clock struck seven the doors sprung open. There awaited the enchanted ballroom. Magical decorations swept across the gym. Despite the dance floor being packed, everyone was still able to find their prince or princess. As the students danced the night away, they soon realized their fairy-tale evening was coming to an end.

Homecoming Court

Golden Spirit

Friday was the final day of spirit week, and if you didn't dress up you looked like a geek. Students and faculty rushed to the gym, excited to see who would win. As they yelled you could tell each class was proud, the black and gold spirit flew through the crowd. All the skits were enthusiastic, but the boys soccer was the most fantastic. The winning order was seniors, juniors, freshmen, sophomores.

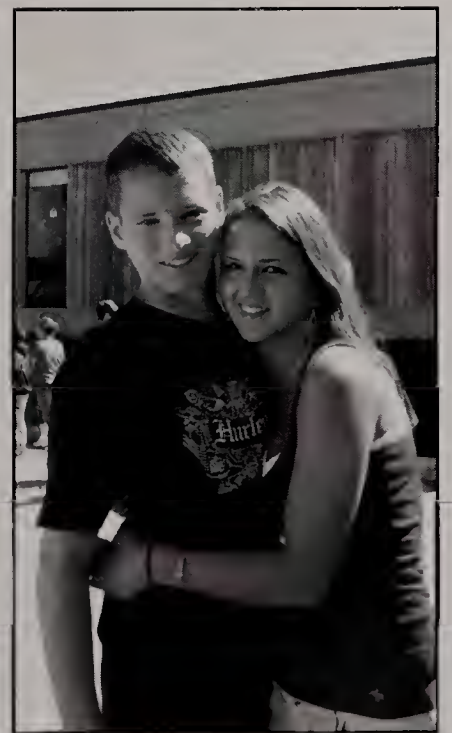

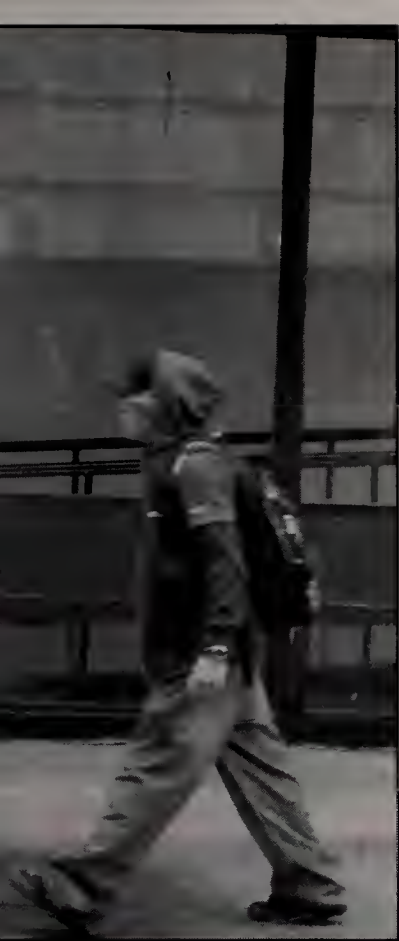

Next year the classes will be back to show their pride once more.

"The Time of Our Lives"

From hallways to the outdoors,
We walked into a new world.
We fearfully stepped off the yellow school bus determined to fit in.
New classes, new beginnings, a fresh start for each of us.
We looked up to the seniors who seemed so grown.
At this point, it was nearly impossible to realize how fast our time would go by.

As sophomore year came upon us,
We gripped our pencils and prepared for an awkward year.
Not yet grown-up but able to reminisce on our times as freshmen.
A feeling of angst entered our bodies as we began to realize that these long lunch lines and the morning scent of the salty Nauset Light would not remain near forever.

School spirit arose junior year.
Our time was drawing close, but there was always room for competition.
We stuck out our loss at homecoming,
Only growing stronger from a failure.
Licenses were rewarded to many, and love began to transform our lives.
Old friends changed, new friends were made,
Schedules were packed.
Now we actually had to learn how we were to manage our diminishing time.

Before senior year arrived we had already experienced a world of change.
Many of our dear friends before us began to grown their wings in summer 2005,
We each gripped our hands together, longing to hold on for just a little more time.
As our youth fades away, we grip them even tighter.
We must learn to fly.

As we spread our knowledge throughout the many corners of the world,
Our hands will always remain locked with the beautifully diverse class of 2006.

So, here we are at the end of our public education. Time certainly has flown by at a alarming rate. It has been a fantastic four years at the high school, and I am proud and honored to have shared it all with you. I would like to thank my friends: you all know who you are. You have helped me so much. I would also like to thank my family for always being there for me. A special thanks goes out to my triplet siblings--I could not wish for any others. And thank you Jillian, for all that you have given me. I will never forget the wonderful times we shared. Remember,

Looking back, the good times have flown by, and everything else was just a sleep mirage in the back of Mr. Rice's History class. Some things more than others made time pass, XC in the fall and Track in the spring; never has such a congenial nor more eclectic group of boys gotten together to run for fun- or perhaps fall victim to the tyranny of a sadistic math teacher or a metals fanatic. And to my two others- maybe I'll see you again sometime, years from today, sharing a park bench quietly?

I bequeath my unique style of running and freakishly good Frisbee skills to Nate Norgeot, and the enormous responsibility of upholding the Cross-County Gad's legacy to Mr. Ryan Kemp.

Kev & Haley: p-party-Ryan. And to all those missed and the rest of the 2006 class, I had a good time and will miss you all. Thank

Rockwell Buckminster Schrock

There's no way these four years were the best of our lives. I mean, all I remember is the first day the Math Team and I wore our "Army of Pi" sweatshirts. Oh, and late-night Xbox parties, and playing Ultimate Frisbee until dark. I recall the thrill of the 1 meter hurdles, skateboarding in frigid weather, and many exhausting Sunday River trips. And I can't omit LAN parties and wardriving! Wow; I guess these four years really were the best. A huge thanks to all my teachers and to my parents.

I, Rockwell Schrock, bequeath an official Math Team "Get Your Geek On" magnet to Johnny Bakker, and a hacky sack to Ross Johnston.

What can I say about my life at Nauset? It was the place that allowed me to use my insanity to its full extent. I will miss sharing inappropriate jokes with my friends as we looked over our shoulders to make sure none of the teachers could hear us. I will long for the movies that we made for our English class, while almost passing out from laughing. Most of all I will miss using my insane imagination to express myself in so many ways. But now the seniors are free from High School, and I must now set out into the world. Mankind is doomed.

Well it's finally over, these four years went by fast. I'd like to thank my mom and dad for always being there in support of everything. Also I'd like to thank my friends who were always there, and the many teachers which helped me out. But that's about it so everybody peace out.

Cara Chartier

I hope it's not true what they say about these being the best years of our lives... But still I wouldn't change it. "Einstein"- the beach, black eye, many "nights of the...", end of the world... danke. "Enrique" walks in the woods, Mogabian Princess... Mally?... The morning crew- I miss our rides to school *J-heart shaped rock box; Rides in the truck... Friday night ritual, Pieces and poetry... school? What's school? To everyone I missed (either intentionally or for lack of space): peace out.

Zach Losordo

I want to give a special thanks to the golf team Brophy, Piebes Sumner and partner in crime Kyle. I want to thank my losing poker-playing friends who have provided me with more than enough gas money over the last year. Palmer and E. maybe someday you'll beat me. Wharton and Hoss I'm glad I met you guys. To all my old friends Teddy and Haley I'm glad we stuck together over the years. And finally a special thanks to Rachel.

CLASS OF 2007

JUNIORS

SEMI-FORMAL

On a frosty night in January, the Junior class sponsored the first Winter Semi-Formal at the Sheraton in Eastham. The girls danced in their finest winter dresses while the boys looked handsome in their nice shirts and ties. Students had a splendid time dancing to Funk Salad and DJ Brandon's great mix of music. Hopefully, this is a tradition that can continue at Nauset.

School Within a School (SWS)

emphasizes humanistic, student-centered learning styles. SWS is a program with English and Social Studies curriculums. In addition to the two SWS classes, student participation in the Evening Enrichment Seminar is a critical component. The seminar provides further academic integration of two curriculums, and promotes cooperation, self-confidence and team building skills.

DRAMA

Hard Work, Dedication, Performance

The Drama Department has had some amazing productions this year including "To Kill A Mockingbird" in the fall, "MacBeth" in the winter, and "South Pacific" in the spring. The talent of the "The Nauset Players" is not only recognized on a local scale, but on a larger one as well, nearly placing at Festival in March. Of course, where would they be without the leadership of Ms. Hamer and everyone who helps out during and before shows?! Members of the community at large, staff members, and students will all attest to the fact that a drama production will be the highlight of the weekend!

Their winter show, MacBeth was performed at Festival, and Nauset, as always, gave it their all! This play showed not only the Drama Department's incredible acting talent, but also their creativity. The Shakespeare classic MacBeth takes place in the early part of the first millennium however, the Drama Department decided to set it in the 1960's. It is important to remember the unsung heroes of the Drama Department, the backstage crew, without whose help behind the scenes none of Drama's productions would have been possible. "The Nauset Players" are always a positive addition to our school, and their talent is endless.

FOCUSING ON THE COMMUNITY

Throughout the year students and teachers have worked together to improve our school campus as well as many places in the community. An example of this is Nauset Cares Day where many volunteers got together on April 8th to show their commitment by participating in various activities such as cleaning up local beaches, planting flowers, and cleaning up at the Children's Place in Eastham.

Kelly Niquette, along with many other Nauset students volunteer at Eastham Elementary helping the teachers and working with the students.

MOLLLLLLDEEEEEEE!

Molly, I hope I can follow as noble a path as yours. I admire your determination so much. I love you as much as 20 elephants! Justin

In 1990, in a 50 acre field in Indiana, across from where we lived, I watched with amusement as you took a right angle turn from our path and toddled boldy off into the tall grass. I thought, "I'm going to stand here and see just how far she goes". I watched until you were no longer visible over the crest of the hill. Then a touch of parental panic set in and I hurried after you. You were still trudging confidently across the vast farm field that bright October day, without a look back. Some things never change. We love you deeply and admire you for all your passion, discipline, vision, and joy.

Love, Pops

Molly, my beautiful little sister, I'm so proud of you. Remember: dancing on Thanksgiving, Lion King on the hammock, up-dos before dances, sleep overs on Christmas Eve, monopoly on the cabin bunk bed, the NH general store and thrift shops. Good luck on your journey ahead. I have no doubt that you will be a wonderful woman. I love you so much! 'E'

Danielle,

Wherever life may take you,
always know, that I will be there.

I am very proud of you and know that you will succeed.

I love you.

Danielle,

Dear Rachel,

Congratulations! Another big goal in your life! Success!
We are so proud of you.

As you close this chapter, remember the book has only just begun. You have a life time of pages to fill and chapters to complete!

The beginning has been a wonderful start, full of love, warmth, good times but also tough times. A young girl, well rooted and strong, learning to overcome adversity, to never give up, to work for what she believes in and to bring happiness to others.

Those are just some of the gifts you were given.
Throughout your journey, you will learn more and may you use them well.

Now is the time to prepare for a big change and an exciting new chapter.
Go out there in this big world, taking our love and support and fill your chapters with love, learning, kindness and good deeds.

Learn all you can Stand strong in all you believe.
We love you and believe in you.
Mom and Dad

This is dedicated to Kara Dzlobek on this date of November 2, 2005 to tell her how much she is loved and cherished, appreciated and respected, admired, impressed at her dedication, time management, obstacles despite adversity, and honest citizen with impressive choices, budgeting, choices in friends and direction of life.

We are undeservingly blessed

The day my darling daughter was born was a blessing from above. We are so very proud of every step she makes. Fortunate to see all the talent and qualities in her that are missing from us but the experience of a lifetime of 54 years cannot compare with the angelic angel that spent hours of diligent dedication to learning and to see all the rewards that are yearning to be earned. My daughter < Kara has given such meaning to my life without any comparison to any other individual. I can only hope to expect what she can teach to others and her example is divine. Always may she touch others to have meaning to her life and belief that is within our reach. One day, Kara gave an amazing quote, basically to the fact that there is a beginning and end, but what matters are the paths we choose in between.

Love forever, from Mom, Samuel, Clint and Brett your immediate family of loved ones forever
GOOD LUCK IN THE COLLEGE OF YOUR DREAMS, MAY IT BE EVERYTHING YOU HOPED AND DREAMED FOR SINCE THE FOURTH GRADE. YOU DESERVE THE BEST LIFE HAS TO OFFER.
GOD B LESS YOU ALWAYS AND PROTECT YOUR PATH.

To the rats: never forget the jigs,
the music, the behemoths, the river,
the memories, the sauce.
That's all folks! For now

Whatever tomorrow brings...

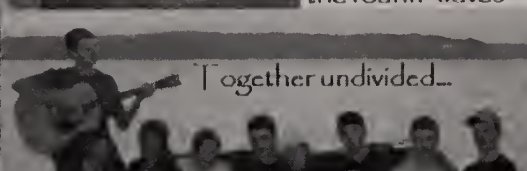

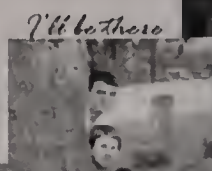

I'll be there

Sail away where no boat and chain

Can Keep us from the roarin' waves

Together undivided...

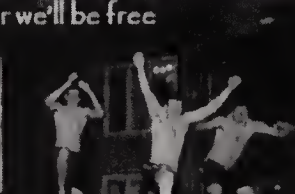

The moon is full and so are we

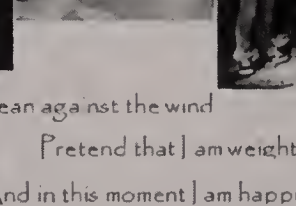

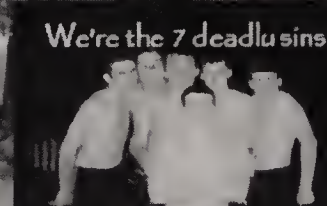

So sail away aboard our rig

but forever we'll be free

We're the 7 deadlu sins

I dig my toes into the sand

The ocean looks like a thousand diamonds strewn across a blue blanket

I lean against the wind

Pretend that I am weightless

And in this moment I am happy

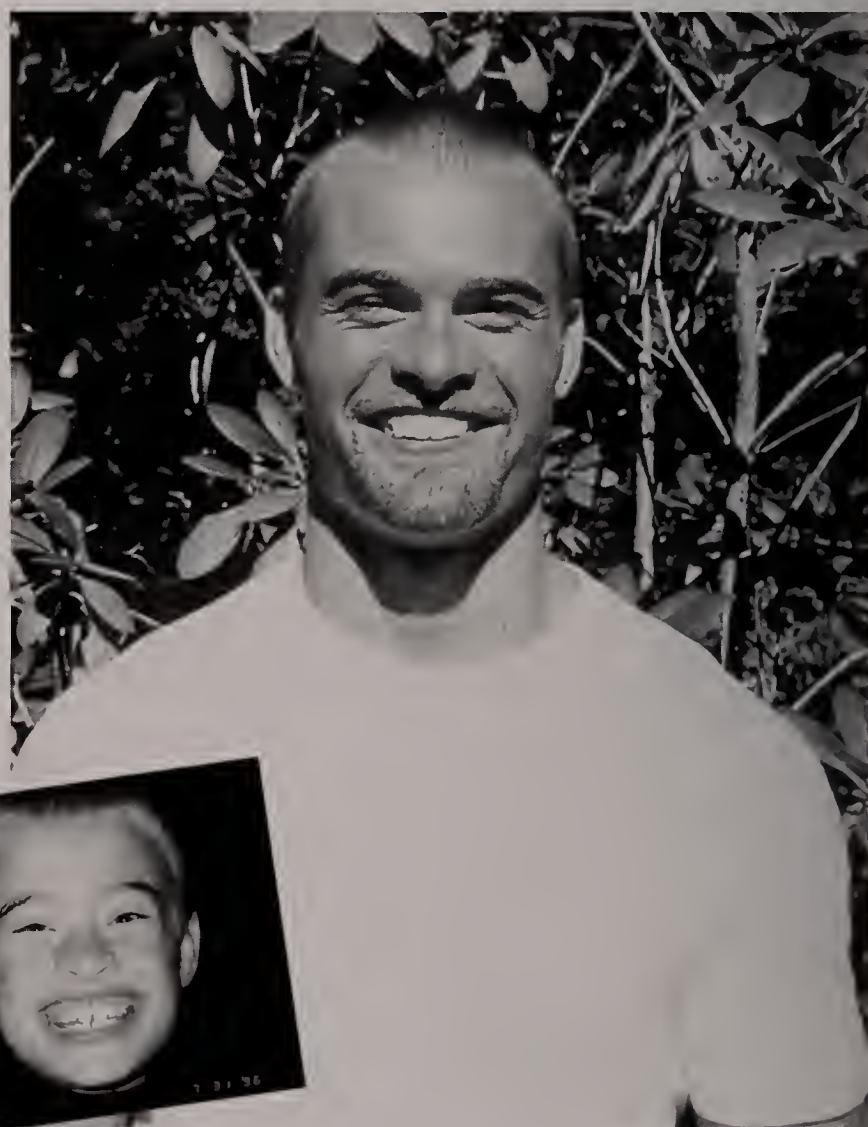

I wish you were here

Thank you for everything you are
Love, DGN

Although we will miss you, we are comforted in knowing your values and integrity will hold you in good stead as you explore new territories.

Brad-

I am so proud of the young man you've become! A loyal, caring and wise counselor to many friends, a fun-loving big brother to your cousins, and a talented musician that is not content to sit on his talent but loves to work hard at it. One of my greatest joys has been and will always be to see you play with such passion! Music will always be enough, yes?! So, Zoom Zoom-your turn to "take the world" - and you can finally do it your way! Always be true to you. You're all you need and you're the best there is!

1-2-3 Love, Momma

JAKE, CONGRATULATIONS!! WE WANT TO LET YOU KNOW HOW VERY PROUD WE ARE OF YOU AND HOW FORTUNATE WE FEEL TO HAVE YOU AS OUR SON. ALWAYS REMEMBER TO FOLLOW YOUR HEART AND TO PURSUE YOUR DREAMS. NO MATTER WHAT PATH YOU CHOOSE FOR YOUR FUTURE, WE WILL ALWAYS BE HERE FOR YOU. WE LOVE YOU. MOM, DAD, MARSHALL, ROSIE, AND LEAH

Sunny Bunny loves the sunshine
 A bird's song, Mommy's kisses, playing peek a boo, picking flowers, a game of catch, blowing bubbles, a cake with icing, coloring with crayons, bright balloons, opening presents, dancing to music, a wagon ride, climbing a tree, a make believe tea party, a fuzzy blanket, a good night story, shhh...
 And splashing at Crowe's Pasture at sunset.

The Yearbook Staff

Although all staff were extremely important these students took on extra to get things done.

The yearbook staff has worked hard to complete the 2006 yearbook. We hope you enjoy this edition of Nauset Tides as much as we enjoyed producing it. Even through all the stress of meeting the deadlines, we still continued focusing on teamwork, compromise and attention to detail.

Thank you to all those who helped the Yearbook staff gather pictures as well as information to create this years 2006 yearbook. A special thanks to Mrs. Spencer, Stan Johnson, Mrs. MacDonald, Mrs. Tupper, Mrs. Dearborn, Amy Martin, Jillian Watson, coaches, advisors, and the parents of seniors.

Just a note about our theme "Golden Daze"...

You may notice many times in the book where there are references to Gold and da'z'e. Gold reflects Nauset's color and da'z'e refers to times we remembered in high school and the laid back nature of where we live. We also thought it would be a lot of fun!

The Senior Class Dedicates the 2006 Yearbook to ## Mrs. Marilyn Dearborn

Mrs. Dearborn has been working in the Nauset School District for 22 years at both Brewster Elementary School and Nauset High School. Her sense of style is second only to her dedication, not only to the students and faculty but also to the community at large. Mrs. Dearborn is an outstanding individual who never stops giving as shown by her many contributions including the Sunshine Fund chairperson, organizer of last year's golf tournament for the Evans family, walker in the Relay for Life and especially her never-ending assistance at graduation. Students find inspiration in Mrs. Dearborn's ability to juggle a 'zillion' tasks at once, but mostly in her selflessness as reflected in all she does.

The Class of 2006 dedicates this yearbook to Mrs. Dearborn as a heartfelt "thank-you" for all she has done for the Nauset community.
